

Upper Snake River Valley Dog Training Club

Is pleased to announce a new annual award:

Achievement of Excellence Award

In honor of Barbara Friedrich

Barbara Friedrich (1939-2016) was an advocate for dogs and handlers.

An active member of the Upper Snake River Valley Dog Training Club (USRVDTC) for many years, she successfully competed with multiple dogs in Obedience, Rally, Tracking and helped many other dog/handler teams reach their goals. Barbara gave freely of her time and talents to further the objectives of the club and its members. The Achievement of Excellence Award has been established in Barb's honor to recognize dog/handler teams for their success and in memory of Barbara's many accomplishments and friendship to all.

The Award recognizes the collaboration of dog and handler and the bond that forms as they work together in various sports. It will be presented annually to the high scoring team during the Club's Christmas party. The team will receive a plaque and their names will be added to the memorial poster which will be housed at the Snake River Animal Shelter in Idaho Falls.

This award is based on team participation in at least three of eight approved categories: Conformation, Agility, Obedience, Rally and Tracking, Flyball, Nosework and Barn Hunting.

Complete details can be found at www.usrvdte.org. The award period will begin November 1st and run until October 31st annually. If you have any questions, please contact a Board Member or send a note to the address below.
